Not for the Producer.

"It is evident the exchange is for the moral," answered the president of the spinner. No guess work about these new Regal prices. The price is stamped right on the shoe—at the factory.

And it isn't stamped on until chartered public accountants have figured the cost of manufacture and of marketing and added the Five Per Cent. Commission.

These accountants pay no attention to the old-fashioned suggestition of "even money" prices. All they care about is an accurate, close fitting price.

The chief thing that Regal designers care about is to put just as much Dalue-just as much Style and Comfort and Wear-as they can squeeze into each shoe.
